CUSU ELECTION 2026–27: GENERAL APPEAL TO ALL STAKEHOLDERS

The Cotton University Students' Union (CUSU) Election Conduct Committee 2026–27 earnestly appeals to all stakeholders of Cotton University—including students, faculty members, non-teaching staff and the University administration—to extend their cooperation in ensuring the smooth, free, fair and peaceful conduct of the CUSU Election 2026-27. All concerned are requested to uphold the highest standards of mutual respect, courtesy and responsibility, and to ensure that differences of opinion are expressed with dignity and restraint.

Let us collectively uphold the dignity, reputation and glorious legacy of Cotton University, while ensuring due respect of all members of its community, particularly the faculty members and non-teaching staff who are actively involved in various activities related to the election process. The Committee trusts that the entire University community will contribute towards maintaining a cordial and harmonious environment throughout the electoral process.
