Additional Skills	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. IT – Proficient user of Microsoft Word, PowerPoint, Excel, the Internet, E-mailing, Web Browsing, E-Books, Podcasts, and other basics 2. Interpersonal – Good as a human being, I can understand other's feelings and emotions. Creating an atmosphere of teamwork and cooperation among the students, I make the classroom homely for them. As a teacher I not only help my students with their academics but also guide them in their life and if necessary, I conduct regular counselling sessions with the ones in need of it. 3. Leadership – I am an active participant in various institutional as well as family functions by expressing the best of my leadership skills. I try never to miss any of them even if a minor disease catches me. And I love living like that. As, "Life is very Precious and the only One". 4. Presence of Mind – As an expert in Education, I believe to have at-least a basic amount of presence of mind. I can frame a story or perhaps practical examples about my son and husband regarding a random topic I am teaching, which perhaps create a humor and a better way of understanding for the students. 5. Helpfulness – Being a helping hand in the life of a student or other less fortunate person is a service to god. Either by financial aid or providing the students with books and their required skills is a very fine work that I like to do.
Interests	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Practicing Yoga every morning or 5 days a week. 2. Thinking new techniques to handle the most complex students in the best way, as I also need that in case of my son. 3. Talking with my students, colleagues, and friends in order to know something new and creative, so that I can use it while teaching the pupils from various backgrounds. 4. Being friendly to the people around me and treat them like a family. 5. Cooking new kinds of food. 6. Visiting new places with an environment of social bonding and country feeling.
